Overview

Does South Sudan have a solar power project?

South Sudan has taken a significant step toward renewable energy with the launch of its first major solar power project. The Ezra Group, a leading business conglomerate, has successfully developed and financed a 20-megawatt (MW) solar power plant along with a 14-megawatt-hour (MWh) Battery Energy Storage System (BESS).

Why is South Sudan struggling to provide electricity to its citizens?

According to a 2024 sciencedirect.com report, South Sudan struggles to provide its citizens access to electricity despite having abundant energy resources, particularly fossil fuels.

How do solar irrigation systems work in South Sudan?

These solar pumps harness the sun to power sensor-driven drip irrigation throughout villages in South Sudan, fostering a sustainable means of agricultural production while fighting increasingly common effects of climate change such as unpredictable floods and droughts, according to the Rainmaker Enterprise.

How does South Sudan produce energy?

Most of the country's current energy production comes from generators that burn imported diesel, a costly method both economically and environmentally. According to the World Bank, only 8.4% of the population had reliable access to power and electricity in 2022, leaving the door wide open to produce much-needed renewable energy in South Sudan.
